GAME ENDED IN A ROW

OGDEN PLAYERS WRATHY AT

In Last Inning With Score Against

Line team of Salt Lake ended in the noisiest kind of a noisy wrangle the result of which was that Kuhn, Ogden's umpire, decided in favor of the Short protest and the crewd swarmed into the diamond.

It was an exceedingly unfortunate time for the Ogdens to withdraw, for the chances were that they were leaten. The score stood six to eight against them and they had two men out. On the other hand it was unfortunate for the Short Line boys.

Umpire Wells tried to send an Ogden runner back to first, who had stolen second because the Ogden batter sacrificed and went out at first. The Salt Lakers interfered to prevent the injustice and the game went on up to the last half of the ninth when he called a man out at first. This raised an uproar. The Salt Lakeers offered to let the man back to strike over again. Manager Horn, however, refused to screde to this and the game was given to Salt Lake by Umpire Kuhn and all bets were declared off.

Hot at Wells.

It at the proper time. Wells denied this.

The game opened with Salt Lake at bat and both sides played a close, steady game, heither scoring until the third inning, when the railroaders got in two runs, shutting out Ogden and pilling up two more in the next inning. In the firth Ogdens bunched their hits and got in four. This was followed by another and then the grand stand fairly went wild. Just at the moment when Hansford, who tied the score, crossed the plate there came a great clap of thunder, which was, however, drowned by the shouts of Ogden's roosters.

Traveler Becomes Insane.

A traveler on the southern Falsac, who gave his name as Jaceb Venfuleth, was picked up at the depot yesterday morning in a somewhat demented condition. He had with him a little girl about 2 years of age. The child was taken in charge by the Crittenden Home ladies, while the man was given medical attention at the police station. He was under the impression that some one was trying to kill him, and he wanted a Catholic priest. Father Cushnahan was sent for and succeeded in quieting the man. The stranger said be came from San Francisco, where his wife recently died. He said he left two of his little boys there, and that he was on his way with the little girl to relatives in New York. He had a ticket through to New York and seems to be quite well-to-do. His physician thinks he will be all right in a day or two. who gave his name as Jacob Venfuleth,

It is expected that the streetcar track will be constructed down Seventeenth sirect to the bail grounds, work to begin in a day or two. If this is done, teams will not be allowed to drive into the grounds hereafter.

Peddled Pins to See the Circus.

(New York Journal.)

Victor Loughran, the 12-year-old boy runaway of Brooklyn, has left his home twenty-six times since he was 5 years old. He has been as far away as Chicago and Washington. Sometimes he was brought back. Whenever the circus is in town his father locks him up. Mr. Loughran this last time was ill, and didn't know that the Forepaugh Selfs show was in the vicinity and neglected the locking-up formality. A week ago Victor left his home taking with him his s-year-old brother. Fred. Both of them had circus fever. The family sent out an alarm, and offered a reward for their return. Detectives watched for the children at the circus, but without result. At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning two Gerry society men found Victor and Fred on the Bowery peddling pins.
